To receive financial aid administered by Mountwest Community and Technical College, you must make satisfactory academic progress (SAP) toward completing an eligible degree. For this reason, your SAP for financial aid is calculated each semester to verify that you have met all Federal SAP standards. Federal regulations require that academic progress be evaluated both quantitatively and qualitatively. Mountwest's policy is available on our website, www.mctc.edu.

Regulations state that you must complete your program within 150% of the published credit length of your degree program. You will not be eligible for financial aid once you have attempted over 150% of the published credit length. All credit hours throughout your academic history, even from periods in which you may not have received financial aid, will be included in the calculation. A certificate program requires 30 credit hours; therefore, you can attempt 45 credit hours. An associate degree program requires 60 credit hours; therefore, you can attempt a maximum of 90 credit hours

INSTRUCTIONS:

You will need to demonstrate the unusual circumstances beyond your control. These circumstances should be one-time occurrences that are not likely to be repeated.</li> <li>● READ THE INSTRUCTIONS CAREFULLY. All forms and documentation must be submitted by the respective deadline. Incomplete appeals will not be reviewed. Appeals received after the deadline will be considered for the next semester. You will be notified in writing once a decision has been made; however, you may track the processing of your appeal through your MyMCTC account.</li> <li>● THE TIMING OF YOUR APPEAL FILING IS IMPORTANT. If you file late, you must pay your tuition by the due date or you will be dropped from your courses for non-payment. Do not rely on the success of your appeal for tuition payment. You must attend all of your classes while awaiting your appeal decision, but be aware that if your appeal is denied, you will be responsible for paying all charges from your resources.</li> <li>● AN APPEAL DOES NOT GUARANTEE A FULL AWARD. If you did not meet the academic progress requirements, you have lost your financial aid eligibility which may include all of the aid that was offered to you for the remainder of the academic year. If your eligibility is reinstated through an appeal, we will award you with the funds we currently have available.</li> <li>● IF YOUR APPEAL IS DENIED, your current or future aid offer is subject to cancellation, and no aid (grants or loans) can be paid to you.</li> </ul>
